

Matt Mayberry was raised in Gorham Maine and at 19 years joined the US Air Force stationed in Charleston South Carolina travelling the World on a C-141 aircraft. He is a decorated Air Force veteran and was instrumental for changing Air Force policy regarding required CPR training for all AF flight crews. Matt returned to NH where he has lived for the past 35 plus years. Matt served three terms on the Dover (NH) City Council and one term on the Dover (NH) School Board. In 2019, Governor Chris Sununu appointed Mayberry as Chair of the NH Human Rights Commission, an adjudicative body weighing in on over 400 cases of discrimination each year. In 2020, Mayberry ran for US Congress after learning that four veterans were going to lose access to their mental healthcare because the Veterans Administration hadn't paid for those services owing hundreds of practitioners tens of thousands of dollars in unpaid fees. In 2021 Mayberry assisted in running COVID vaccine clinics throughout Strafford County including locations such as schools, parking lots, wooded areas (for the homeless population) and the county jail. Matt also assisted the Strafford County Meals on Wheels program delivering over 2500 meals himself during the pandemic. He also ensures that low-income children at Dover High School can attend their prom, get a yearbook and also have enough food to eat.

In 2021, Matt Mayberry became the CEO of the NH Home Builders Association representing the 27,000 people who make a living within the residential building trades. Governor Chris Sununu appointed Matt to the Community College System of NH Board of Trustees in 2024. Mayberry resides in Rochester NH where he also serves on their Economic Development Commission.
